Cite Them Right Richard Pears 2025-05-01 Now in its 13th edition, this essential resource is the go-to text for students and authors who want to accurately reference sources and avoid plagiarism in their work.

Communication Research Rebecca B. Rubin 2000 This text presents strategies for selecting, refining, and researching communication topics, placing special emphasis on using library resources to search for literature. It demystifies the research process by teaching students library skills, scholarly writing, and acquainting them with the latest research technology tools.

Research Writing in Education and Psychology--from Planning to Publication

Herbert John Klausmeier 2001

Conducting Educational Research Bruce W. Tuckman 1978 This text focuses on analyzing and critically evaluating published research. The text includes a checklist, sample study, and research problems that are already worked out. This fifth edition features instructions and descriptions for running statistical tests using the personal computer and the software program SPSS. The text also includes expanded coverage of qualitative data collection methods. Smaller changes include more information on the ethical requirements for researchers and discussion of the use of meta-analysis and techniques for employing a wider range of research designs.

Writing for Psychology Mark L. Mitchell 2003 WRITING FOR PSYCHOLOGY - A STUDENT'S GUIDE offers concise assistance for students writing their research analyses using APA Style. By providing concrete examples of common errors, the authors are able to show--rather than merely tell--students what to do and what to avoid. This student friendly manual will help students adhere to the basics of American Psychological Association (APA) style; refine critical thinking skills, library search skills, revising skills, editing skills, and proofing skills; and avoid plagiarism. This text is an adaptation of an earlier text published by Robert O'Shea. Checklists for students, which have been praised by reviewers, precede the summary at the end of every chapter, giving students the chance to make sure they have been thorough in their reports.
