Temptations GI Rapula 2019-08-20 For a young woman of Thandiwe's age, she is quite temperamental. She grew up in the absence of her parents. She and her twin sister were raised by their grandmother. Lack of parental care turned Thandiwe into a lover of men who sometimes were her father's age. She dedicated her life to giving pleasure to men until she could no longer control her feelings for them. Frankly, this affection was not meant for them but for what they had; their wealth.

She skips the country after she has betrayed her sister and only returns home when she discovers something shameful about her real parents. Her sole mission is to demand the truth from her grandmother.
