Cheating Mia Consalvo 2007 "In Cheating, Mia Consalvo investigates how players choose to play games and what happens when they can't always play the way they'd like. She explores a broad range of player behavior, including cheating (alone and in groups); examines the varying ways that players and industry define cheating; describes how the game industry itself has helped systematize cheating; and studies online cheating in context in an online ethnography of Final Fantasy XI."--Jacket.

Multiple Literacies, New Pedagogy Jeeva Ratna Roche-Smith 2004 This dissertation explores a technologically intensive after-school program to determine what literacy practices develop, and what alternative spaces are created in which learning can take place. Using qualitative methods and a socio-cultural lens, this research is an examination of adolescents' learning and development, in the process of creating digital stories (multimedia compositions) over two semesters. It documents the complexities and opportunities that are born when participants from different cultural worlds come together to learn and play.
