Auditionology Harriet Greenspan 2014-07-22 Top Hollywood Casting Director Harriet Greenspan demystifies the casting process for young actors and their parents, guiding them on their journey to book roles in television, movies and theater.

Acting in Atlanta Nan McElroy 1994-09-01 ACTING IN ATLANTA is a thorough, concise introduction to what's involved in the serious pursuit of an on-camera acting career, that also includes an updatable industry directory for Atlanta and the surrounding region (also available separately). It is a complete primer for new talent, and the ultimate source book for any actor whether currently in this market, or contemplating a move to the region. This realistic, no-nonsense manual can save an actor hundreds of hours of research. Topics include opportunities available, who legitimate agents and casting directors are and what they expect, available training, and an overview of marketing tools such as headshots and resumes. It shows a novice how to avoid major pitfalls; gives specifics to make a smooth and effective transition from the theatre medium; saves valuable time and energy by providing actors with up-to-date information that will help get and keep them firmly established in an ever-changing market. The third edition also has a section devoted specifically to children--& their parents--who are interested in an on-camera work. Endorsed by industry professionals, ACTING IN ATLANTA is, as a top agent puts it, "Excellent...clearly written, properly organized, easily used, inexpensive information that every actor...needs!" To order: 2workingactors, Box 77512, Atlanta, GA 30357. 404-351-1655.

JJ's Audition Adventure Javier Vázquez, Jr. 2024-05-30 JJ's Audition Adventure, authored by Javier Vázquez Jr., is a picture book for kids K-3 who have that early "spark" for acting. Illustrated by storyboard artist and animator Ekaterina Soyuznova, the story follows a young boy named JJ who sees his uncle on a TV show and decides he wants to try acting for himself. With the help of his uncle, he learns the most important elements of making a self-tape audition video, including lighting, lines, backdrops, and more. Most importantly, JJ learns how to work hard, bounce back from disappointment, and courageously explore new things. This story is not only entertaining but informative as well. Following JJ's example, young readers and parents will learn how to make a self-tape audition of their own, and they'll have access to a full glossary of must-know acting terms for kids to thrive in the industry. In addition, the book prepares kids for the inevitable experience of rejection and equips them to recenter on the joy of getting to do what they love. Javier Vázquez is a professional actor with a background in education who has had over two dozen speaking roles on TV and film, plus countless appearances in commercials and print work. Through the book, he aims to give kids an "uncle" figure to guide them through an industry that both kids and parents are often unprepared for. Overall, kids and parents will feel empowered to explore and develop courage for trying new things.

Acting in Atlanta Rafiq Batcha 2016-05-16 Atlanta is happening. It's more than just home to the busiest airport in the world, Coca Cola and CNN. The Walking Dead, Vampire Dairies, Hunger Games, Ant-man...perhaps you've heard of these TV shows and movies? These were/are all filmed in and around Atlanta. Atlanta is now the number 3 film and TV production center in the US, after Los Angeles and New York. Being an actor in Atlanta could be one of the smartest decisions for the beginning actor because the competition is less intense than LA/NY and the acting support structure of agencies, CDs, classes and such is growing deeper and wider every year. This book is a guide to getting an acting career started in film and TV in Atlanta, with a suggested list of resources you can use at every step such as: - acting classes and acting schools in Atlanta - headshot photographers - talent agents - casting directors - suggest survival jobs Also includes interviews with 35 working Atlanta actors!
