Representation in Old Testament Narrative Texts Jacobus Marais 2021-10-11 This work focuses on the literary conventions of narrative texts in the Hebrew Bible, in particular the mode of representation in the book of Judges. The theory of integrational semantics, developed by Benjamin Hrushovski, is systematized to form a theoretical framework within which representation is conceptualized. The author suggests a novel reading of the Judges-narratives to demonstrate particular conventions of representation. The notions of paradoxality, perspectivity and juxtaposition are used to demonstrate the potential value of types of logic, alternative to modernist logic, in reading ancient Hebrew narratives. A hypothetical representeme is constructed for the book of Judges to make it clear that the mode of representation is neither mimesis nor historiography, but narrative, representing by convention and not by correspondence to history.

Intermediate Listening Comprehension

Patricia Dunkel 1993 This intermediate text offers a rigorous, academically-focused listening program centered around a series of high-interest lectures. It is premised on the notion that second language learners must develop a much broader competency in listening comprehension than in speaking, since the listener has little or no control over the vocabulary, speech rate, or content used by the speaker.
