Bridging the Gap Brenda D. Smith 1997 "Bridging the Gap" was the first book to focus on how to read college textbooks. This college-level focus has since evolved to connect textbook readings to academic and everyday reading sources and represent three bridges of reading: text-to-text, text-to-world, and text-to-self.

Reading & Writing Sourcebooks, Grade 4 Ruth Nathan 2001-05-23 The Teacher's Guide for each level supports each selection with: - a comprehensive skills and strategies overview; - detailed background information and teaching tips for the selection; - suggested discussion questions and strategies for engaging students, vocabulary development, prereading, and more; - blackline masters on word work, prereading, vocabulary, comprehension, prewriting, and assessment; - a Strategy Handbook explaining key before, during, and after reading strategies.

Educating for Critical Democratic Literacy Kathryn M. Obenchain 2015-03-27 Educating for Critical Democratic Literacy educates pre and in-service elementary school teachers in teaching four key civics concepts through social studies and literacy integration. Written together by both literacy and social studies experts, it is based on a conceptual revision of the notions of civic education and critical literacy called "Critical Democratic Literacy" (CDL). The authors' dual expertise allows them to effectively detail the applications of their knowledge for teachers, from lesson conception to implementation to assessment. Part I explains the theory and basic principles of CDL and provides background information on the role of democracy in education. Part II consists of four sample lessons designed using the National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS) C3 Framework and the Common Core State Standards for English/Language Arts (CSS ELA) standards. Part III includes a primer explaining the four civic concepts that frame the book. Fully aligned to both the CCSS ELA and NCSS C3 Framework, this timely resource provides future and current teachers with specific lessons and tools, as well as the skills to develop their own rigorous, integrated units of study.

Applied Linguistics and Materials Development Brian Tomlinson 2013-01-31 Applies applied linguistic theories to the development of materials for language learning to add new depth to the field.

Journal of Reading 1986

Intermediate Listening Comprehension Patricia Dunkel 1993 This intermediate text offers a rigorous, academically-focused listening program centered around a series of high-interest lectures. It is premised on the notion that second language learners must develop a much broader competency in listening comprehension than in speaking, since the listener has little or no control over the vocabulary, speech rate, or content used by the speaker.

The Reader's Corner Carol C. Kanar 2000-11 This thematic reader for upper-level courses offers 50 compelling selections on contemporary issues accompanied by strong pedagogical features. Best-selling author and educator Carol Kanar provides an introductory chapter on the reading process and essential reading skills. Each reading is then accompanied by a range of pre-reading, post-reading, and critical-thinking exercises and guides.

Making Assessment Matter Nonie K. Lesaux 2012-01-01 " All too often, literacy assessments are given only for accountability purposes and fail to be seen as valuable resources for planning and differentiating instruction. This clear, concise book shows K-5 educators how to implement a comprehensive, balanced assessment battery that integrates accountability concerns with data-driven instruction. Teachers learn to use different types of test scores to understand and address students' specific learning needs. The book features an in-depth case example of a diverse elementary school that serves many struggling readers and English language learners. Reproducible planning and progress-monitoring forms can be downloaded and printed in a convenient 8 1/2" x 11" size. "--Provided by publisher.

Social Studies for Social Justice Rahima C. Wade 2007-04-13 Dedication to social justice teaching is important; yet putting one's ideals into practice in American schools is a challenging task. This book goes beyond theory and idealism to fully explore the value and impact of implementing social action and social justice activities in the elementary school classroom. Informed by the experiences of more than forty teachers across the country, this thoughtful resource: Examines how elementary teachers, from inner cities to rural towns, use the social studies curriculum to teach about and for social justice. Focuses on how teaching social studies for social justice relates to standardized testing, state curricula, and the local challenges teachers face. Offers classroom activities, "Reflection Exercises," and "Teaching Ideas" to provide teachers with practical applications for the topics discussed. Includes a list of children's literature books, curricular materials, and websites.

50 Strategies for Improving Vocabulary, Comprehension, and Fluency Adrienne L. Herrell 2006 A practical approach of step-by-step instructional procedures for developing key literacy skills. Each strategy is supported by an authentic classroom example. An additional example of each strategy is provided on the accompanying CD.

And Action! Kathy Swan 2013-11-12 And Action! Directing Documentaries in the Social Studies Classroom provides social studies educators with the background knowledge, conceptual understanding, and tools necessary to design and facilitate classroom documentary projects in the K-12 social studies classroom. The authors have spent more than ten years in classrooms working collaboratively with teachers to design and research classroom documentary projects. Recognizing the challenges of this kind of work, the authors partnered with filmmakers, historians, educational technologists, and classroom teachers with experience in leading documentary projects to refine a production process that more closely mirrors the work of filmmakers. With this book, the authors draw on all of these experiences to assist social studies educators to efficiently and effectively structure and assess documentary projects. Educators will learn ways to transition student learning away from "digital encyclopedia entries" toward a more authentic documentary approach that focuses on disciplined inquiry and the use of evidenced-based arguments.

Reflective Planning, Teaching, and Evaluation Judy W. Eby 2002 SIX TALES OF LOVE • When Araki finds an old fax machine, he starts corresponding with the only girl who can receive his letters. But there's a twist! • A brother's dying request: deliver a videotape to his girlfriend . . . someone his sibling didn't even know existed. Bridging the Gap with Reading Road Trip 2.0 Brenda D. Smith 2000-07 Widely praised for her engaging and motivating writing style, Brenda Smith provides exercises and instruction designed to encourage critical thinking. A hallmark of the text, the readings are taken from college textbooks and represent three different reading levels (9th-10th, 10th-12th, 12th+) in each chapter to permit individualization of assignments to meet varying student needs. A variety of academic disciplines are represented throughout, including psychology, history, biology, business, allied health and English literature. Intended for 9th-12th grade reading level.

Literature, Literacy, and Comprehension Strategies in the Elementary School Joy F. Moss 2005 Learning and Teaching Elementary Subjects Jere E. Brophy 1995 This series aims to make important contributions to the further development of the knowledge base of research on teaching, both by documenting advances in our understanding of particular topics and by stimulating further work on these topics.

Reading and Writing Essays Judith Lambert 1994 [This book] is a rhetoric/reader that opens with several chapters on reading and writing essays, followed by a collection of essays organized by rhetorical mode. Each chapter contains an introduction (explaining the mode, showing how it is used, and exploring how to organize an essay using that mode), three selections from a professional writer, and one from a student illustrating the mode. Students are encouraged in each chapter to think critically about the selection and to write essays on related topics.-Back cover.
