Preservice Elementary Teacher Education in Science John E. Penick 1987

The Search for Exemplary Preservice Elementary Science Programs was undertaken to recognize programs that modeled effective teaching behaviors and prepared teachers for developing appropriate attitudes and skills in students. This document describes the seven exemplary programs that were recognized by the National Science Teachers Association's Search for Excellence. The criteria for excellence are listed and explained and perspectives are offered on what was learned from the search. Programs reviewed include those from: (1) University of Toledo; (2)

Ball State University; (3) University of Georgia; (4) Eastern Michigan University; (5) Utah State University; (6) Austin Peay State University (Tennessee); and (7) University of Southern Mississippi. (ML)

The Book Report & Library Talk Directory of Sources

Renee Naughton 1991 This directory identifies the following wide-ranging resources for school libraries: (1) an annotated bibliography of books for a professional collection; (2) an annotated list of book lists, i.e., books that will assist in collection development; (3) a list of journals that review new books on the market together with the grade levels covered; (4) an annotated bibliography of books and journals that will help the librarian to integrate library use into classroom units in every subject area; (5) an annotated list of print and nonprint media on the teaching of library research skills; (6) annotated lists of audiovisual (AV) resources divided into three sections: AV software, books on managing an AV collection, and producers of nonprofit media; (7) an annotated listing of books and videos on storytelling; (8) an annotated listing of publications devoted to the writings and artwork of students; (9) an annotated list of newsletters of special interest to librarians; (10) an annotated list of public relations resources that includes books on bulletin boards and displays as well as basic public relations guides; (11) a list of sources of clip art; (12) a compilation of companies providing promotional materials to market the library program; (13) practical ideas for feasible fund raisers; (14) lists of computer programs, books pertaining to computers, and companies producing and distributing computer software; (15) annotated lists of automated circulation systems; (16) descriptions of three security systems; (17) a list of companies that provide products and supplies to manage, operate, and maintain libraries; (18) a list of magazine subscription agencies; (19) a directory of book publishers; and (20) a compilation of reprints of professional articles from "Library Talk" and "The Book Report."
